

R. Neal McDonald

Businessman and entrepreneur, Rodric Neal McDonald, age 85, passed away October 14, 1992 at St. Mark's Hospital after a long illness.

Born March 12, 1907 in Salt Lake City, Utah the son of J.G. and Lillie Ann Neal McDonald. Married Marnie Miller in January 1927; later sealed in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. She preceded him in death, August 1975. Married Marjorie Beckel Lacy, June 1976.

He was president, owned and operated McDonald's Chocolates, Salt Lake City, which was founded by his grandfather John T. McDonald in the mid-1800's, and later became J. G. McDonald Candy Co., a well-known candy company which won five world medals.

Member of Salt Lake Country Club. Member of Gyro International. Board member of National Candy Manufacturing Assoc. Member of the LDS Church, Union Fort 7th Ward. Active in civic affairs.

Survived by his wife, Marjorie; two sons, Rod McDonald, Jr. (wife, Janice) of Brussels, Belgium; and James T. McDonald, Salt Lake; two grandchildren, Angela McDonald, San Diego, Calif; and Christopher McDonald, Salt Lake; one great-grandson, Cameron McDonald, Salt Lake; three step-children, Dennis Lacy, Aurora, Colorado; Mrs. James (Judith) Maybach, Minneapolis, Minnesota; and Susan Lacy, American Fork, Utah; brother, B. Wellington McDonald, St. George, Utah; and by many nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by parents, three brothers and five sisters.

Funeral services Saturday, October 17th, 12 noon, Larkin Chapel, 260 East South Temple, where friends may call Friday evening 7-8:30 p.m., and Saturday, 10:45-11:45 a.m. Burial will be in the Salt Lake City Cemetery.

T 10/16

N 10/16